

Some test cases of text summarisation that we have tested via chatGPT.

TestCase-1

the actor said that he was not involved in selecting Sara's first Bollywood project. "I am there if she needs to ask or talk to me about anything. I know what she is doing and we talk about films just like we do about everything else," said the Phantom actor.Sara will be seen in Abhishek Kapoor's Kedarnath. The film is set to go on floors by this year end.

is the blow summary is relavent too the above text?

Actor Saif Ali Khan has said that he is not looking down on acting, it's just not the most stable profession. He added, "After having done that, why wouldn't she want to live and work in New York, rather than do this? I am not looking down on acting, it's just it isn't the most stable profession."

 Yes, the summary accurately reflects Saif Ali Khan's views on acting as a profession and his apprehension about his daughter Sara Ali Khan joining Bollywood.

 Regenerate response

TestCase-2

READ:Mob lynching India's shocking war within, a challenge Narendra Modi must confrontCow vigilantism: Supreme Court issues notice to Centre, 6 states is the blow summary is relavent to the above text?

The Narendra Modi government on Tuesday told the Supreme Court that it does not support any kind of vigilantism during hearing on a petition against mob lynching in the name of cow protection. "Law and order is a state subject and Central government does not have any role into it. However, Union of India is of the view that no vigilante group has any space in the country as per procedures of law," Solicitor General Ranjit Kumar said.

 Yes, the summary accurately reflects the main point of the given text, which is that the Indian government has told the Supreme Court that it does not support any form of vigilantism, particularly in cases of mob lynching related to cow protection.

TestCase-3

sad," he added about the protests in both cities. Earlier, veteran actor Anupam Kher, who is in Indu Sarkar too, had told IANS that a "united voice of the industry? -- much like what was raised before the release of Udda Punjab -- needed to be heard once again. Follow @htshowbiz for more

is the blow summary is relavent to the above text?

National Award winning filmmaker Madhur Bhandarkar has said he is sad that the film fraternity did not express solidarity with him when Indu Sarkar was mired in controversy. "Today what has happened to me, might happen with somebody else tomorrow," he added. Notably, the film was cleared by the Central Board of Film Certification (CBFC) Revising Committee after two cuts and one disclaimer.

Yes, the summary accurately reflects the main points made in the given text, which is about Madhur Bhandarkar expressing his disappointment that the film fraternity did not show solidarity with him during the controversy over his film Indu Sarkar. The film was eventually cleared by the CBFC Revising Committee after two cuts and one disclaimer.

TestCase-4

is my first love is Army and till I die it will remain so."ONCE A SOLDIER ALWAYS A SOLDIERInteresting, before the start of the high profile political briefing Captain Amarinder asked politicians, army officers and media persons to observe two minute silence for the brave soldiers who die in Kashmir and other parts of the country.

is the blow summary is relavent to the above text?

Punjab Congress Committee Chief Captain Amarinder Singh has said, "Am a soldier first and then politician. One shouldn't forget his/her first love and mine is Army." While addressing a press conference in Delhi, the former Punjab CM said, "Am a soldier first and then politician. One shouldn't forget his/her first love."

Yes, the summary accurately reflects the main points made in the given text, which is about Captain Amarinder Singh stating that he is a soldier first and politician second, and that his first love is the Army.

TestCase-5:

quadruplexes in cancer and invented a method for the sequencing of epigenetic modifications," his citation reads. Olympic stars Andy Murray, Mo Farah and Jessica Ennis-Hill are among others honoured in the 2017 New Year Honours list, which also includes big names from the entertainment world, including actors Mark Rylance and Patricia Routledge. Rio 2016 mens tennis champion Murray and double gold- winning athlete Farah receive Knighthoods, while heptathlete Ennis-Hill becomes a Dame.

is the below summary is relavent to the above text?

An Indian-origin British professor of chemistry Shankar Balasubramanian has received a Knighthood from Queen Elizabeth II for his contribution to the field of science and medicine. Balasubramanian, 50, was recognised for his work as a co-inventor of Next Generation DNA sequencing, described as the most transformational advance in biology and medicine for decades.

Yes, the summary is relevant to the above text.

TestCase-6

women's team star Harmanpreet Kaur following her stellar performance in the World Cup. Amrinder posted a congratulatory message on Twitter where he offered the post of a Deputy Superintendent of Police (DSP) to Kaur if she so desired to join the police force.

is the below summary is relavent to the above text?

The Himachal Pradesh government has offered the post of Deputy Superintendent of Police (DSP) to Indian women's team wicketkeeper Sushma Verma following her performance at the Women's World Cup. "Being proud of her achievement in the international cricket arena, the state government has offered the post of DSP to Sushma," said Himachal Pradesh Chief Minister Virbhadr Singh.

Yes, the summary is relevant to the given text.

